Every family needs support sometimes

The faculty and staff at TABS care about our students and their families. The TABS website is full of helpful information about everything from assistance with basic needs to mental health resources. Click here to access our Families page.

If you or a loved one is struggling, help is a phone call away. Dial 988 to access the Suicide & Crisis Lifeline. Click here to download the contact to your mobile phone.

Your vote is your voice

Democracy requires participation, and the best way to contribute is to go to the polls. All eligible TABS students will be able to register to vote during advisory tomorrow in the TABS cafeteria thanks to March to the Polls.
