

Caswell County Schools is a Low-Performing District

BYHS: Low Performing (TSI) consistently low performing: growth not met (D)

Dillard Middle School: Low Performing: (TSI) consistently low performing:
growth not met (F)

Oakwood Elementary: Continually Low performing: Exceeded growth (D)

North Elementary: Low performing: not met (D)

South Elementary: Low performing (TSI) consistently underperforming (D)

Stoney Creek: Continually Low-performing: growth not met (F)

The following information will be important moving forward:

- Quality instruction is apparently demonstrated in our schools from certified teachers in each school.
- School performance grades include multiple indicators that determine the overall letter grade of each school
- There are pockets of student growth in each Caswell County School
- There will be strategic plans in place at the district level and at each school to address student needs. These plans will be aligned with the department of instruction's goals for school districts.
- Caswell County Schools faculty and staff need parental support to ensure the success of our students.

Thank you for your support of Caswell County Schools.

Posted on September 4, 2024