3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Curriculum planning is done in a collaborative way vertically and horizontally. Teachers collaborate with teachers from other elementary schools and also with the PMHS, which we feed into. We utilize the PLC process to establish common expectations for standards, assessment, curriculum and assessments. Our PLCs are structured in a way that enhances vertical and horizontal growth. Our teachers communicate effectively with RTI/MTSS and SPED staff to ensure that staff and student needs are being met.
	We have seen tremendous growth with our JRGR program. Students are performing at higher levels each year. We are still struggling with consistent writing instruction and implementation across K-5.
	Measurement and data as a math domain is consistent challenge evidenced by both iReady and GMAS data.

NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	Administrators work hard to maintain sustainable relationships with all staff members and students. We utilize and have identified several "teacher leaders" to build and sustain internal leadership capacity. Our leadership team collaboratively works to improve staff and student performance and achievement. Our committee process has aligned individual classroom mission statements to our county mission in order to provide vision and direction. Administrators support classroom instruction and strive to ensure that teachers are equipped with the professional development, teaching materials, and classroom management support to make sure learning can flourish. Administrators, teacher leaders, and custodial staff ensure that the facilities, grounds, and equipment are safe and conducive to support student growth. Specific teachers are redelivering new math curriculum and materials.
Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	We effectively utilize teacher leaders and the leadership team. Also, our PLC process provides the methods to identify student and teacher needs. Collaboration with Care Partners and the school nurse and counselor assist students in need. Effective communication through all of these processes are crucial. The RTI/MTSS process is implemented effectively to address student academic and behavioral needs. The school counselor hold month classroom guidance lessons and works with at-risk students. Students with interfering behaviors are place on a Behavior Intervention Plan (BIP).
Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	PTO plays an active role with teachers and students. Students in need receive backpack buddies (food for insecurities) from 2 different community churches. We have a strong partnership with GSU and the SBCPRD.
Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs?	The staff and administrators work together as a team to foster supportive learning environments where students needs are met, staff is supported , and facilities are safe and welcoming.

3. REQUIRED QUESTIONS

3.1 Stakeholders, Coordination of Activities, Serving Children, and PQ

Required Questions

1. In developing this plan, briefly describe how the school sought advice from individuals (teachers, staff, other school leaders, paraprofessionals, specialized instructional support personnel, parents, community partners, and other stakeholders).	The Leadership Team is made up of the principal, a teacher representative from every grade level, the school special education coordinator, and a specials teacher. The Leadership Team leads the comprehensive needs assessment process for our school and the development of the SIP. Parents and community members are involved in the development and revision of the SIP through their participation on the Parent Engagement Team and School Council. They are also involved through their participation in various school needs surveys conducted yearly. The results of these surveys are utilized during the school improvement process. Additionally, school stakeholders have an opportunity to provide input regarding revision of the SIP each school year through the annual school-level Title I parent meeting. Meetings have been held daily during the last week of May during post-planning. These meetings included all 10 team members and were scaffolded and directed by the principal and a district level representative. All team members were able to be actively involved in digging into the data. It was eye opening to see the data from different department perspectives. We were able to give our input from each grade level perspective. School administrators consistently reviewed school initiatives and progress with PTO representatives and parents throughout the year.
2. Describe how the school will ensure that low-income and minority children enrolled in the Title I school are not served at disproportionate rates by ineffective, out-of-field, or inexperienced teachers.	All current PES teachers are Professionally Qualified in certified fields. We do not have any teachers that are teaching out of field. All teachers meet professional qualifications. In interviewing and hiring professionally qualified in-field teachers, they are selected by a leadership team using rubrics and a variety of questions. Ineffective teachers are assigned a peer mentor to consult with as needed. In addition to this, the principal often meets with and supports these teachers, often selecting a plan of action that is appropriate for the teacher. Inexperienced teachers are given multiple opportunities to meet with team members during the school day. They are also assigned a mentor teacher to serve as a resource to them as needed.

3. Provide a general description of the Title I instructional program being implemented at this Title I school. Specifically define the subject areas to be addressed and the instructional strategies/methodologies to be employed to address the identified needs of the most academically at-risk students in the school. Please include services to be provided for students living in local institutions for neglected or delinquent children (if applicable).	All students at PES will receive direct instruction from a professionally qualified teacher employing a variety of research-based instructional strategies. Title funds will be used to further increase the effectiveness of classroom instruction by paying for supplemental paraprofessionals. Instructional priorities will focus on creating a balanced literacy program to include direct phonics instruction, guided reading, and writing as well as providing STEM related activities in science/math. Teachers will employ grouping strategies within the instructional process to allow for differentiation based on instructional need. In addition, MTSS teachers and support staff, and a tiered approach to intervention will be utilized to ensure that the most at-risk students receive additional support to address their individually identified needs. Title I funds will help to fund supplemental books to enhance the Guided Reading Program/Balanced Literacy Program. Students at-risk emotionally/behaviorally are also served in the general education setting through MTSS. Students are identified at-risk through medical histories, parent report, current behavior, and school behavior records. Students at risk in this area are often served at Tier II with an additional layer of behavioral supports beyond that of the class behavioral interventions. Students may be referred for school counselor services as well. Students not responding at the Tier II level of support receive Tier III direct support on an individually designed basis. All services can be provided during the school day at the school. Title I funds are used in our school to provide additional paraprofessionals, supplement counseling services, and purchase consumable materials, books and instructional materials. PES will utilize Federal Funds to provide students with mental health services through our partnership with CarePartners. We will implement services to students in crisis with next-level care, as needed. We will further utilize social workers and Family Engagement Specialist to continue to build home-school relations with our community. This will have a direct relation with improving academic achievement by assisting parents on how they can be more involved in their child's academic success. Reading instruction and exposure to balanced literacy are areas of need for all students in the building. Math, specifically, measurement and algebra, are also areas of need. In the area of reading, students use the Jan Richardson Guided Reading Model to meet all students at their individual levels to fill gaps and catch them up on grade level standards. In the area of math, teachers differentiate the grade level standards and reteach as necessary to ensure mastery of grade level standards. In the area of math, students use hands-on manipulatives to model work. Students are asked to explain their thinking (ideas), use visuals, incorporate vocabulary and differentiate student's learning. Title I money will be used to fund additional paraprofessionals in the building. In addition, it will serve to fund resources and materials for teachers to utilize in instruction. Lastly, Teachers are provided learning opportunities and Professional Development in order to improve their instruction. Teachers are afforded the opportunity to go to the Professional Learning Committee (PLCs) conference to learn how to facilitate team collaboration meetings within the school. These meeting have proven to be very beneficial in improving instruction and learning. At PES, our teachers meet weekly with our instructional coordinator to

4. If applicable, provide a description of how teachers, in consultation with parents, administrators, and pupil services personnel, will identify eligible children most in need of services in Title I targeted assistance schools/programs. Please include a description of how the school will develop and implement multiple (a minimum of 2) objective, academic-based performance criteria to rank students for service. Also include a description of the measurable scale (point system) that uses the objective criteria to rank all students.	N/A

3. REQUIRED QUESTIONS

3.2 PQ, Federally Identified Schools, CTAE, Discipline

Required Questions

5. If applicable, describe how the school will support, coordinate, and integrate services with early childhood programs at the school level, including strategies for assisting preschool children in the transition from early childhood education programs to local elementary school programs.	Pre-Kindergarten transition is achieved through PK orientation for parents, parent open house, and end of year conferences with the PK teachers regarding each child's strengths and needs. Students coming from Preschool Intervention Programs have transition IEP meetings with both the PK teacher and Kindergarten team leader in attendance. PES PreK program works closely with the kindergarten teachers to make sure that instruction and expectations are leveled appropriately. Teachers in Kindergarten also meet annually with parents of PreK students to help better communicate with them the upcoming year's expectations. The fifth grade transition to middle school is facilitated by having fifth graders spend several hours at the middle school for a tour and to meet teachers. In addition, middle school staff participate in end of the year Tier III meetings, Promotion/Retention meetings, and transition IEP meetings to facilitate an understanding of student needs for their incoming sixth graders. Students not enrolled in PreK prior to Kindergarten are monitored closely using G-Kids rating scales to be sure that they are making adequate progress. Teachers in kindergarten also have full-time paraprofessionals that allow them to work one-on-one directly with students who need more support.
6. If applicable, describe how the school will implement strategies to facilitate effective transitions for students from middle grades to high school and from high school to postsecondary education including: Coordination with institutions of higher education, employers, and local partners; and Increased student access to early college, high school, or dual or concurrent enrollment opportunities or career counseling to identify student interest and skills.	Coordination with institutions of higher education, employers and local partners; and the school that we feed into. Increased student access to early college high school or dual or concurrent enrollment opportunities or career counseling to identify student interest and skills. [Se. 1114(b)(7)(II)] Not applicable
7. Describe how the school will support efforts to reduce the overuse of discipline practices that remove students from the classroom, specifically addressing the effects on all subgroups of students.	PES administrators are very cognizant of the importance of students needing to be in attendance for instruction and will conduct non-emergency discipline meetings with students during non-academic periods. Student with persistent behavioral issues are referred to the Response to Intervention Team for additional supports. Progressive discipline allows for multiple steps prior to the removal of a student from the educational setting (ISS/OSS) except for instances of safety.

	Students who do have extended time out or in school suspension are seen by our guidance counselor to review incident and work towards better responses/solutions in the future. PES provides students access to all special education and Tier III instruction to the greatest extent possible, even if the student is serving an In School Suspension. Students with chronic social-emotional and/or behavioral issues may also be referred to mental health partners working in the school to help support the child in being able to actively participate in instruction. Teachers utilize their own individual behavior plans to best meet the needs of their specific students. When necessary, teachers are supported by administrators, RTI teams, and counselors. Teachers at PES work closely with administrators to be sure that any out of classroom discipline is a last resort. Infinite Campus is utilized to help administrators, parents, and teachers get a clear picture of the whole child and any discipline issues that may arise.
