Components of a Title I Program

Components that Create a Title I Program

- Increase academic achievement.
- Provide direct instructional support to students.
- Provide professional development to teachers.
- Promote parent education and engagement.

School Building Leadership Team

The primary function of a Building Leadership Team (a.k.a. Lighthouse Team, ACIP Committee) is to promote and facilitate the collaborative decision-making process which impacts academic achievement.

1. Development/Launch/Execute improvement goals
2. Cultivate a mindset of accountability
3. Ensure the effective communication of plans for school improvement

Parent Advisory Council

- ◆ Each Title I school is required to have a Title I Parent Advisory Council. The Principal of the school selects two parents to serve as representative and co-representative of the school's Parent Advisory Council.
- ◆ The Parent Advisory Council provides information to parents of Title I participating students regarding Title I issues, and in consultation with other parents to bring questions, concerns, and ideas regarding Title I related issues to the attention of school staff, administration and other school community stakeholders.
- ◆ The school's building leadership team works with the school's principal and the Parent Advisory Council representative in planning, reviewing, and implementation of ACIP, Title I Funds, Title I Parent Plan and School-Parent compact for the school.

School-Parent Compact

A written agreement that outlines how the parents, the entire staff and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement, as well as describes how the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the state's high standards.

- ◆ Components include...
 - How parents can be involved in decision-making and activities
 - How parental and family engagement funds are being used
 - How information and training will be provided to parents
 - How the school will build capacity in parents and staff for strong parental and family engagement through “evidence based” strategies
- ◆ Schools work to provide parent/family engagement opportunities without barriers.
- ◆ Schools provide opportunities for parents to be involved in the academic success of their child.

Baldwin County Board of Education Parent and Family Engagement Plan

- ◆ This plan addresses how the LEA will implement the parent and family engagement requirements of Every Student Succeeds Act. It includes...
 - The LEA's expectations for parents and families
 - How the LEA will involve parents in decision-making
 - How the LEA will work to build the schools' and parents' capacity for strong parental involvement to improve student academic achievement

The 1% Set Aside for Parental Engagement

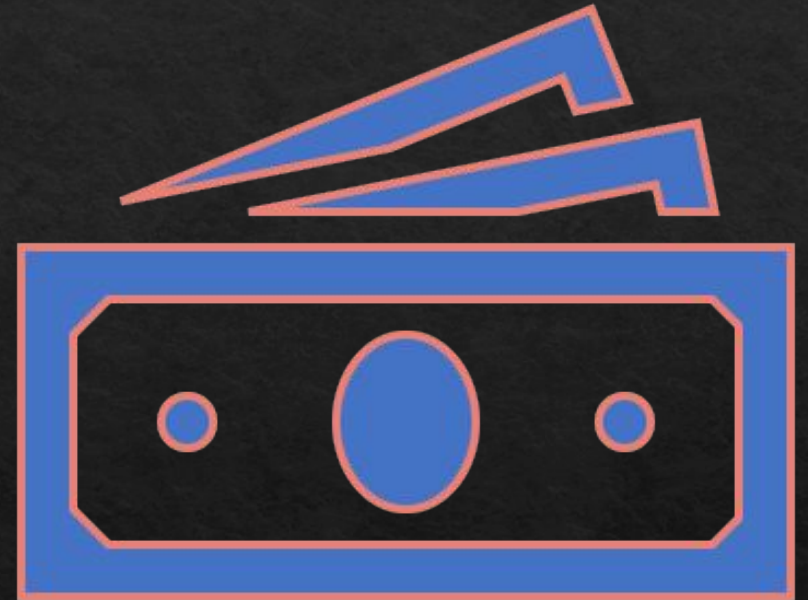

A school with a Title I Allocation exceeding $500,000 is required by law to set aside 1% of its Title I allocation for parent and family engagement.

Of that 1%, 10% may be reserved at the LEA for system-wide initiatives related to parent and family engagement. The remaining 90% must be allocated to all Title I schools in the LEA. Therefore, each Title I school receives its portion of the 90% to implement school-level parent and family engagement with clear expectations and objectives for meaningful involvement.

Title I Funds in Our School
