

Portrait of a Graduate

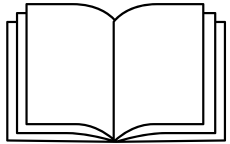

The STE Graduate is

Spiritually
Responsible by

- receiving forgiveness.
- abiding in love and humility.
- recognizing the Bible as a source of knowledge, truth, and inspiration.
- incorporating daily worship and prayer.
- understanding our relationship with God.

Intellectually
Responsible by

- pursuing truth across disciplines and striving to meet academic challenges.
- engaging in creative and logical exploration.
- communicating through oral, written, technical, and artistic means.
- recognizing the beauty in art, music, theater, and literature.
- participating in meaningful conversations and healthy debates.

Emotionally
Responsible by

- exercising self-discipline.
- practicing good listening.
- embracing a resilient mindset.
- being kind and compassionate.
- demonstrating self-advocacy.

Socially
Responsible by

- extending forgiveness.
- committing to service and civic duties.
- expressing empathy.
- displaying good character and speaking up for the truth.
- acknowledging the foundational work of those who preceded us.