Title

Creekview HS FFA -- National Three Star Chapter Award

Requested Action

School Board Recognition of Creekview HS FFA -- Winner of National Three Star Chapter Award

Summary Explanation and Background

The Creekview High School chapter of the FFA agricultural education program has been named a 2024 3 Star Chapter by the National FFA Organization.

The National Chapter Award Program recognizes outstanding FFA chapters nationwide, and 3 Star is the highest star rating awarded. Honored chapters demonstrate success in providing educational experiences for all members, growing student leaders, participating in community service, and raising awareness about the importance of agriculture. The FFA program at Creekview HS is led by teachers Chloe Lynch and Wyatt Wilkie. The Creekview HS chapter will be recognized at the 97th National FFA Convention & Expo in October.

Last school year's officers involved in the award-winning work include: President Jamie West, Vice President Kallie Reynolds, Treasurer MollyClaire Barber, Reporter Kristen Lively, Sentinel Sarah Hill, Historian Will Childers, Student Advisor Ryan Bearden and Parliamentarian Charles Young.

This school year's officer team is made up of: President Kallie Reynolds, Vice President Charles Young, Secretary Sarah Hill, Treasurer MollyClaire Barber and Reporter Nolan Hendrix.

The FFA chapter is a co-curricular program with additional learning opportunities for students after school and on weekends, including leadership and competition experiences.
