 - 2. Petitions for a referendum will be received by the Board before January 1 of any school year.
- B. Collective negotiations cover the following professional personnel:

- C. The Board shall not negotiate with another group on the current negotiated agreement which has been agreed upon and signed by both parties.

A. FORMAL NEGOTIATIONS

This article will govern the process of collective negotiations between the Teachers and the Board of Education. The Board as a committee of the whole, representatives of the Board, or someone representing the Board will work with the teachers negotiating committee or a representative of the teachers group in the consideration of salary schedules and conditions of employment as those terms are used in SDCL Chapter 3-18.

A. Principles:

- 1. Both parties agree to negotiate in good faith. The teachers shall be entitled to the reasonable use of the school communication system for the purpose of communications with teachers and shall be entitled to the reasonable use of school facilities for meetings.
- 2. The Board agrees to furnish the Teachers, upon request, such information as is reasonably available to the Board.
- 3. If an agreement is not reached by May 1, contracts for the subsequent year will be issued under the same terms and provisions as the previous bargained agreement.
Contracts will be amended when a settlement is reached.

B. Procedures:

- 1. The welfare of the students and their education shall be the most important responsibility of the negotiating teams.
- 2. If either party desires to negotiate, the other party shall be notified in writing. The written request, stating specifically the reason for the meeting, must be directed by the chairman of the teachers negotiating committee to the Chairman of the Board or visa-versa. A meeting must be held within ten days after the request has been submitted unless both parties agree to an extension of time.
- 3. The teachers negotiating committee or the Deuel School Board may engage the services of a professional negotiator. If either group chooses to use a professional negotiator, it is mutually agreed that there will be representation from both groups present at the negotiations table and at those times the negotiation sessions will be open. If a professional negotiator is not used, either of the following methods may be used:
 - a. If the teachers negotiating team has the authority to act for the Professional Staff, the board will

- negotiate as a unit and the teachers shall be entitled to a negotiating team of no more than 8 representatives.
- b. If the teachers negotiating team does not have the authority to act for the Professional Staff, the Board will have two representatives or seek the services of an outside negotiator and the teachers negotiating team will have no more than 8 representatives. It is recognized that both teams have the authority to negotiate for their respective groups but also realize that final agreement requires the ratification of the Board and Teachers respectively.
 - c. If outside negotiators are to be used, that decision must be made no later than January 1st. If the negotiating is to be done by the Board and the Teachers, the method to be used must be decided upon by February 1st.
4. Meetings may be conducted in open session by mutual agreement. If there is not mutual agreement, the meetings will be held in closed session.
 5. The Board shall appoint one spokesperson and the teachers shall do the same. The spokesperson may yield the floor to another member of the team upon their being recognized by the spokesperson.
 6. The initial meeting shall involve introductions and an exchange of packages. Subsequent meetings shall be held at such times and places as is mutually agreeable.
 7. The Business Manager shall be a recorder for all sessions. Before the close of each meeting a statement shall be drafted to which all parties agree as representing the developments that occurred during the meeting. The Chairperson of each team will sign the statement and will be furnished a copy within 24 hours. An agenda will be established for the next meeting.
 8. The Superintendent of Schools may be present as a resource person for both groups.

If negotiations are in closed session, all agreements and/or disagreements between teams shall not be made public, orally or in writing, to any member of the press or communications media after negotiations have formally begun unless a jointly agreed and prepared statement is released by the teams involved.

B. ANNOUNCEMENT OF AGREEMENT

When final agreement is reached, the negotiated agreement shall be reduced to writing and, when approved and signed by both parties, shall become a part of the official minutes of the Board.

The School District shall prepare a copy of the agreement within thirty days after ratification, for each employee covered by the agreement.

For that reason it is agreed that liquidated damages shall be assessed by the party of the second part against the party of the first part on the following schedule:
