

Questions To Ask When Reading To & With Your Child

Fiction (Stories)

Before Reading
(look at the title, cover, pictures, etc.)

- What do you think will happen in this story?
- What might the problem be?
- How might the problem get solved?

While Reading

- What has happened so far?
- Why did that happen?
- What might happen next?
- How does the character feel? How do you know?

After Reading

- What happened in the story?
- How did the character's feelings change?
- What lesson did you learn?
- What did you like or dislike about this story?

Questions To Ask When Reading To & With Your Child

Non Fiction (Informational)

Before Reading (look at the title, cover, photographs, etc.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· What do you think you might learn from this book?</li><li>· What are some questions that you have about this topic?</li><li>· What do you already know about this topic?</li></ul>
While Reading	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· What new information have you learned so far?</li><li>· What did you learn from this picture (or diagram, map, etc...)?</li><li>· What did you learn from this section of the book?</li></ul>
After Reading	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· What new information did you learn?</li><li>· What are you still wondering about?</li><li>· Did you like this book?</li><li>· What did you like or dislike about the book?</li></ul>