HISTORIC FOCUS ON SPACE

A few historic highlights

1. Room analysis of space.
2. Elimination of computer labs
3. Right sizing the classrooms
4. Creating collaborative space v lockers
5. Creating smaller spaces
6. Collaborative classrooms

MHS Strategic Anchor

A comprehensive high school of opportunities that has place for each student.

Profile of a MHS Graduate

Develop empathy, and respect for others through authentic relationships with peers and staff

Enroll in an experiential learning course and work collaboratively with an outside audience and mentor in an area of passion in an authentic setting

Experience in higher-level coursework including AP/IB and beyond

Develop communication, creativity, critical thinking skills

Enroll and successfully complete at least on one online course

Participate in clubs, athletics and arts and develop their leaderships skills to serve the greater good

Experiential Learning at MHS: For every student

Engage students to apply learnings in a specific area to real-life situations.

Develop courses and opportunities that expand students' options beyond high school (certifications, CIS, AP, IB).

Encourage next-generation leaders to use their knowledge, curiosity, and creativity for career opportunities.

Empower teachers to make connections outside of education.

Help students develop power skills appropriate for their field of study (communication, collaboration, leadership, problem-solving).

Create a real-world setting where students have ample space, support, and tools for learning.

Connect students with the broader community for learning and networking.
