Golden Eagles are saying...

Klein Forest has impacted my life by making me feel free to express myself. Along the way and into my junior year I met amazing teachers and students who actually helped me feel comfortable about myself and around others. KF helped me break out of my shell.

STUDENT

KF has given me the realization that teaching is my passion because I can create lessons that help inspire the students to get involved and create experiences they may never get to experience in real life; all while teaching physics.
