When must I submit accommodations requests?

It is very important that you submit accommodations requests before the deadlines. Because the review process is thorough, it takes about seven weeks to review a request when documentation is required.* Note that all deadlines refer to the date by which we must receive complete applications, including all documentation. If a request is resubmitted or if additional documentation is provided, it must be submitted before the deadline below. Begin the process early!

2013-2014 Test Dates	Accommodations Request and Documentation (Where Required) Must Be Received by:

* In some cases, when documentation is not required, requests for accommodations submitted after the above date(s) may be decided before the test date. However, there is no guarantee that accommodations will be approved and test materials shipped in time for the test.

AP dates are set to ensure that most accommodation-eligibility determinations can be made before AP Exam ordering deadlines.
