

EVERYONE IS INVITED TO WEAR ORANGE IN HONOR OF

ORANGE SHIRT DAY

Monday, Sept. 30

Join Robbinsdale American Indian Education as we commemorate and honor the healing journey of American Indian families who were impacted by the residential boarding schools.

Orange Shirt Day is held annually on Sept. 30. Also known as the National Day of Remembrance of Indigenous Boarding Schools, it began as a day to bring awareness to the trauma the residential school system inflicted upon Indigenous children, lifeways, and cultures.
