- Cait Schreiber sent a congratulations card to Mrs. Jones on the arrival of her new child and Mrs. Lutz on her wedding.

Treasurer Report

- This month's expenditures were Staff Appreciation, Administrative Supplies and Subscriptions.
- The staff received Bundt cakes the first week of school.
- The PTC has received $1,750 in sponsor donations for PBIS.
- Stephanie Conlon asked for approval in adding $300 to the budget for Teacher Allotments.
 - Each teacher received a $100 allotment each year to purchase supplies for their classrooms.

- This $300 would be for the Learning Support Teachers.
- Motioned by Amanda Russian, seconded by Amanda McQuillan.
- The PTC Audit took place and everything was balanced.
- The PTC filed their taxes and the 2024-2025 budget was reviewed and approved.

School Happenings Update

PBIS

- Amy Oledzki has been working on PBIS sponsors for the Tiger Pride t-shirts.
- Every year, the PTC purchases shirts for all of the students and staff to wear on special Fridays, Race for Education and field trips.
- This year's shirt will be solid red with "Tiger Strong" across the front and a tiger in the background
- Amy Oledzki will be sending a Skyward with a Google form to complete with each student's size.

Homeroom Parent

- A Skyward will be sent next week with Homeroom Parent information.
- There will be a Google form to complete if interested in being the Homeroom Parent for your child's class.
- There will also be an informational meeting scheduled once the Homeroom Parents have been selected.
- Homeroom Parents will be chosen by the beginning of October.

Volunteer Clearances

- Submitting your Volunteer Clearances is a 2-3-step process.
- There is usually a 2-week turnaround for approval.
- All volunteers must complete the Google form to be approved.
- If you have submitted your clearances in the past, you still must log in to Applitrack and update your child's grade and building that you would like to volunteer at.

- A Skyward will be sent with more information regarding Volunteer Clearances.

PTC Committee Updates

Open House

- The bake sale was a success!
- The PTC profited $700 from the Bake Sale.
- Kristie Quinn thanked everyone who brought in donations or helped throughout the night.
- Cait Schreiber was happy with the Basket Raffle!
- Cait Schreiber put together 25 baskets this year with donations from local businesses.
- The PTC profited $1,100 from the Basket Raffle.
- Cait Schreiber thanked everyone that took time out of their evening to sell tickets.

Homecoming Carnival

- Jennifer Wilson is finalizing the details for the Homecoming Carnival booth.
- The Homecoming Carnival is October 3rd at 5:30PM.
- Volunteers do not need to have their clearances submitted/approved to sign up to help.
- A Skyward will be sent soon with a Sign Up Genius of available slots.
- Volunteers will work 30-minute slots selling popcorn or running the corn hole game.

Race for Education

- Race for Education is the PTC's big fundraiser to start the year.
- A Skyward will be sent at the end of September with more information.
- Taryn Lowman is changing the prize levels this year.
 - Instead of the individual levels, there will be 1 class in each grade that wins a donut and movie party!
- Students will receive their PBIS shirts the morning of Race for Education.

School Happenings with Dr. Furlow

- Dr. Furlow was happy that the school year is off to a good start!
- Dr. Furlow said the kids seem very excited.
- There have been some bus issues and Dr. Furlow is passing those emails along to transportation.

Yearbooks

- The yearbooks have arrived, finally!
- The yearbooks have been distributed and will come home today.
- Stephanie Conlon would like to switch companies this year due to the lack of communication and delays.
- Stephanie Conlon suggested moving to Josten's.
- The high school and middle school both use Josten's and have seemed happy with the company.
- The cost of the yearbook would be $20 instead of $16.
- All parents were in favor of switching companies.
