

Jordan Neal Whitworth

Inducted 2023

Jordan is a 2010 graduate of JHS. While at JHS, she was a freshman letterman in both Volleyball and Basketball and was part of the National Honor Society. While playing volleyball and basketball, Jordan received many accolades. In volleyball, she was the District New-Comer of the Year and All-Johnson County New-Comer of the Year in 2006, Offensive Player of the Year in 2006 and 2007, Team MVP in 2008 and 2009, four-time First Team All-District, four-time First Team All-Johnson County and four time Academic All-State. Jordan was named to the All-Tournament Team for all twelve tournaments played in her high school career 2006-2010 and in her senior year was the District Defensive Player of the Year and All-Johnson County Defensive Player of the Year. In basketball, Jordan received Second Team All-District honors and helped lead the 2008 varsity basketball team to the Regional Quarterfinals for the first time in thirty years. After high school, Jordan attended Texas A&M University-Commerce on a full athletic scholarship for volleyball. During her four years in college, Jordan was named Team Captain all four years, Lone Star Conference Second Team Setter in 2010 and 2011, Lone Star Conference Setter of the Week 12 times, Lone Star Conference First Team Setter in 2012 and 2013 and the Dean's list all four years. During Jordan's senior year, she was the Lone Star Conference Pre-Season Setter of the Year and Lone Star Conference Setter of the Year. Jordan broke the school record for assists and became the all-time leading setter and still holds this record today. She was also named to the Daktronics South Central Second Team Setter, AVCA All South Region Honoree, and became an AVCA All American. Additionally, in 2014, she was named the Lib Huggins Female Athlete of Year for Texas A&M University-Commerce. Jordan earned her Bachelors of Arts in English and became a teacher and coach. She went on to earn her Master's Degree in Education Administration from Lamar University in 2018. Jordan now serves as the head volleyball coach and Assistant Athletic Director in Joshua ISD.