When phone calls fail to contact the parent or emergency number, the elementary student will remain under the supervision of school personnel until parents are notified and pick up the student or the regular end of the school day, whichever comes first.

Parents will receive information about the threat or act of violence that determined an early dismissal in their child's school as soon as is practical. This information is limited to information the school is legally permitted to disclose. The district may use the Blackboard Connect emergency contact system for school-wide or district-wide emergencies.

Every September, parents of elementary students will provide the school with alternative plans for emergency/early dismissal. Parents should notify the school if the information changes.

V. PROTOCOLS FOR A PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY

A. Background

In September 2020, Governor Cuomo signed legislation that requires all New York State public employers to adopt a plan for operations in the event of a declared public health emergency involving a communicable disease. The new legislation will constitute New York State Labor Law Section 27-c, and will serve as a response to the effects of the sudden onset of the COVID-19 pandemic in the spring of 2020. In addition to 27-C, the following section was added to 2801-a of the Education Law that required additions to the District Plan.

VI. EMERGENCY REMOTE INSTRUCTION PLAN

As part of its emergency response, all district schools are prepared to conduct remote learning during weather events, natural disasters, emergency school closures, or any other event that might result in one or more district school being unable to open for in-person learning. All district students have laptop computers available as part of our 1:1 device initiative. Students in grades PK-4 have “take-home” laptops that are kept in the home in addition to laptop carts in each classroom containing a laptop for each student to use while in school. Students in grades 5-12 are issued a laptop at the beginning of each academic year. This unit travels with these students between school and home. In the event of a remote learning day, each student in the district has a reliable laptop unit for use in the home.

All district students and teachers have been issued Google accounts for use during remote learning. The primary learning platform for remote instruction is Google Classroom. Students are able to engage in synchronous, academically rigorous instruction using Google Classroom on remote learning days. Live, synchronous instruction occurs on Google Meets, which can be launched from the Google Classroom of each individual teacher. Similarly, parents and caregivers are able to utilize Google Classroom to access their child’s teacher or to view student work. Students attending these classes will be marked “Present-Out” in our student management system.

Special education, related services, and English as a New Language services will be provided in accordance with the school building schedules listed below. Elementary level services will be provided either during instructional time or additional support block. Secondary level services will be provided during regularly scheduled class periods.

Each school building has developed a schedule for remote learning. This schedule will be shared with teachers, students, and families so that remote learning can occur seamlessly across the district. The emergency remote instruction plan for each district school is as follows:

Cold Spring Early Learning Center

Students at Cold Spring Early Learning Center will receive remote, synchronous instruction in ELA, Mathematics, and one specials area (physical education, art, music, or library) per remote learning day. Teachers will utilize Google Classroom to provide synchronous instruction on these days. Teachers will be supported by a member of the support staff. Support staff will assist with keeping track of attendance, workflow, and classroom management in the synchronous environment. The remote learning day schedule is as follows:

A list of trained CISM team members will be on file in the district office.

IX. PREVENTION AND INTERVENTION STRATEGIES

A. Policies and Procedures Related to School Building Security

Schools will use a single point of entry system.

All doors are locked from the inside to prevent entrance.

No door shall be locked to prevent emergency exit.

The front door of all school buildings will be locked and monitored by a school employee during the regular school hours by means of an intercom system. All persons entering will be required to show picture identification. All visitors must sign-in, sign-out and wear identifying badge while in the building. Visitor access is restricted to specific locations.

Faculty/staff members will wear visible identification badges on their outer-most garment.

Any individual not wearing identification is to be directed to the main entrance sign-in and sign-out area by all faculty/staff.

Should any individual refuse to show, or not possess proper identification, or refuse to wear the required identification, they shall be refused admittance to the school building and the law enforcement/School Resource Officer contacted if necessary.

Fire

- If there is smoke or any portion of the bus is on fire, pull over.
Stop the bus in the safest possible place and evacuate immediately.
- A very small fire may be attempted to be extinguished by the use of the onboard fire extinguisher. However, remember that your primary responsibility during a fire is to evacuate your passengers safely.
- Call base or 911.
- If the engine is on fire, do not open hood.
- If someone's clothing is on fire instruct them to STOP, DROP and ROLL.
Running will fan the flames.

Bus to Bus Transfer

Certain situations will require the transfer of students from your bus to another. Follow these procedures:

- Stop the bus in a safe location. If possible, attempt to leave sufficient room for the transfer bus to park.
- Secure the bus: shut off the engine, set the brake and remove the keys.
Activate the 4-way flasher if required.
- If you are unable to get the bus off the road, the transfer bus should pull into a location to block traffic. Both buses should activate red warning lights until the transfer is complete.
- If able, both drivers are to stand by their doors to maintain visual contact until transfer is complete.

Student Accountability & Release

In an emergency situation that prevents a normal bus drop off procedure, such as an evacuation, medical emergency, crash or mechanical failure it, is essential to: 1) account for all students 2) supervise all students 3) follow procedures for the appropriate release of students.

Do not release students at the scene and do not allow any students, regardless of their age, to leave.

- Call base to inform them of the situation.
- Keep students on the bus unless they are at risk by staying onboard.
- If you evacuate, keep students together, supervised and calm.
- Account for all students. Use the seating chart in your bus folder to list students.
- Prepare students for possible transfer to another bus.

Evacuation

Certain emergency situations will require you to evacuate your bus. Follow these procedures:

- If time permits, call base to inform them of the situation.
- Secure the bus: shut off the engine, set the brake and remove the keys. Activate the 4-way flashers if necessary.
- Determine the proper emergency exit to use.
- Choose an assembly area at least 100-200 feet from danger, upwind if possible and away from other vehicle traffic.
- Assign student helpers to stand by the emergency exits and help other students get off safely. Assign other students to lead the group to the assembly area.
- Check each seat and floor area to be sure everyone is off the bus.
- Leave the bus last, with the first aid kit and a cell phone if possible.
- Gather your students and keep them together at the assembly area.
- Do not release students unless instructed to do so by base or first responders.

Medical Issue

Minor Medical Situations:

If there appears to be a minor medical issue such as vomiting, feeling faint, a bloody nose, a cut or scratch, etc., take it seriously. We don't know the medical history of each student. Therefore, we must treat all of these medical situations seriously regardless of how they appear. Doing nothing is not an option.

If there is a medical emergency:

- Stop the bus in a safe location. Secure the bus and activate the 4-way flashers if necessary.
- Assess the situation and call 911 for potential serious medical concerns (i.e. breathing difficulties, choking, unresponsive student, severe bleeding, anaphylaxis, seizures, diabetic emergencies, and any other concerns deemed serious). Report 911 emergency call to the base.
- Evaluate the first aid needs. Treat the most critical conditions first within your level of training and ability.
- You may need to assign students to help organize and supervise the remaining students.
- If a student is sent to a hospital, give any identifying information you have to first responders. Keep a record of the student(s) name(s) and to which hospital they were transported.

Mechanical Trouble

There are many types and degrees of mechanical troubles that can impact decisions about the safest course of action for you and your passengers. As you assess the situation, determine your location, the condition of the bus, and if students are safer on or off the bus.

If your bus has mechanical troubles, follow these procedures:

- Stop the bus in a safe location.
- Secure the bus: shut off the motor, set the brake and remove the keys. Activate the 4-way flashers.
- Call base or 911.
- Make the decision to evacuate or keep the students on the bus. If it appears safe to do so, always try to keep students on the bus. They are safest there.
- If you need to evacuate for safety reasons, implement the evacuation protocol.

- Do not release students. Follow student accountability & release procedures.
- Put out warning triangles. This is especially important if you're are on a blind corner. If you are the only adult on the bus, depending on the age and disciplinary needs of students onboard.
- Prepare to follow bus to bus transfer procedures if necessary.

Weather Related Hazards

Torrential Rain, Hail or High Winds: If severe weather such as dangerous winds, torrential rain or hail occurs and it is not safe to continue your route, follow these procedures:

- Park the bus in a safe location away from falling objects and call base. Remain until the storm subsides and call base again when you are ready proceed.
- Keep students on the bus and in their seats.
- If additional protective actions are needed, direct students to crouch down with their chest on their thighs. Body parts should be below window height.

Water on Road or Flooding: Do not drive through water on the road if:

- The water is moving or has a current.
- There is debris in the water.
- You cannot see how deep the water is or if there is a dip in the road that could increase the water's depth.
- Any other condition you deem unsafe.

Snow or Icy Conditions:

- Decrease your speed and leave yourself 3 times the normal room to stop.
- Brake gently to avoid skidding. If your wheels start to lock up ease off the brake.
- Be especially careful on bridges, overpasses and infrequently traveled roads, which will freeze first.
- If it is not safe to continue, stop the bus in a safe location and call base.

Power Lines

Power Lines Down or Low-Hanging Lines:

- Identify a safe place to stop, as far away as possible from the power lines.
- Call base or 911.
- Keep everyone inside the bus. The ground around the bus may be energized.
- Do not drive over a fallen power line or under a low hanging power line.
- Do not touch anything or anyone in contact with a power line.

Bus in Contact with Power Line:

- Stop the bus. Secure the bus: shut off the motor, set brake and remove keys.
- Call base or 911.
- Keep everyone inside the bus, the ground around the bus may be energized.
- Keep students in the center of the bus, away from and not touching metal surfaces.
- First responders will tell you when it is safe to exit the bus or to move the bus.
- If you have to evacuate the bus, follow evacuation procedures and include:
  - Keep hands at their sides and jump clear of the bus so they are not touching the bus when their feet hit the ground.
  - Keep both feet together and hop or shuffle away from the bus without picking up your feet, do not run.
- While on the ground, do not touch the bus or assist other students still on the bus.

Aggressive Person

If the person is a parent or other adult:

- If they are outside, keep the door closed and ask them to come to the driver's window.
- If they are already on the bus, ask them to exit the bus. A school bus is school property and no one is allowed on without permission.
- Stay calm, be polite and professional. Try not to become emotional, defensive or angry. Lowering your voice may calm the situation.
- If you are unable to solve the issue, direct them to call the Transportation Dept.
- If the situation becomes unmanageable or if you feel threatened, discreetly key the mic of your radio so the conversation will be heard by base.
- If necessary, instruct a passenger to call 911.

Aggressive students on the bus:

- Use the lowest level of response that will safely neutralize the crisis.
- If two students are fighting, you are not required to put yourself at risk. However, you should behave in a reasonably prudent manner to try to reduce the danger.
- The best way to handle a student fight is to avoid it. Separate any students who are becoming confrontational with each other.
- If students do engage in a fight, take charge of the situation. Use a calm, firm, authoritative voice. Use specific verbal commands such as "Stop fighting! Sit down, now!" include names whenever possible.
- Call base or have a passenger call 911 if necessary.

Threat – Suspicious Object

Threat - If you see, have knowledge of, hear or receive a threat of any kind:

- Stay calm. Avoid creating a more dangerous situation.
- Assess the situation. Is the threat credible? Try to determine if the threat is inside the bus or coming from the outside. Is the threat against a student, driver or the entire bus?
- Discretely gather information from a person reporting the threat, if feasible.
- If possible, call base to report.
- Make a plan, based on the known information. Decide to continue the route, modify the route or stop the bus.
- If you decide to stop the bus, you may want to mimic a mechanical problem rather than draw attention to the threat.
- If the threat is weapon involved, call base with the message “I’m having a problem, my purple button isn’t working”.

Suspicious Object – If you notice or learn of a suspicious object, package or device:

- Do not touch, move or pick up any suspicious object or device.
- If moving, stop the bus in an open, safe area, keeping in mind evacuation will be necessary.
- Secure the bus.
- Quickly and authoritatively instruct everyone to immediately turn off cell phones and do not use the radio.
- Carefully evacuate everyone off the bus making the assembly area as far away as possible.
- After everyone has reached the assembly area, find a way to contact base or 911 possibly by a passing motorist or neighbor.
- Make any preparations necessary for a bus transfer.
