PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES CENTER

MISSION

The mission of the PSC is to provide a wide range of low-cost psychological services to children, adults, and families at LIU, and in the community and surrounding areas, while providing our graduate students with opportunities for clinical service, specialized training, and professional development.

- Operates as a training facility for doctoral candidates in the LIU-Post Clinical Psychology Program, under the supervision of the Program's faculty.
- Committed to offering evidence-based mental health services that are innovative, based on current research findings, and respond to the developing needs of the many different communities in New York.
- Located on the beautiful campus of LIU Post, in a specially designed professional office setting, which features a play therapy space, furnished private individual counseling rooms, and large group and conference facilities.
- In-person and Telehealth services are available by appointment only.

PSC FEES

- We offer individual, couple, family, and group therapy for children and adults at a minimal cost
- We work with clients from diverse socioeconomic, demographic, and cultural backgrounds.
- We use a sliding fee scale, which is consistent with the New York State federal low-fee service schedule. We offer a discounted rate package for multiple family members seeking therapeutic services
- We offer comprehensive psychological evaluations, with a maximum cost to the client of $850.
