The Protect Yourself Rules

Use the rule bank to put the correct Protect Yourself Rule above each definition below.

 1. If you think someone has made you feel unsafe or touched you in a way they shouldn't, you have to get help right away.	 2. Touches to private body parts are never allowed.	 3. No one is allowed to hurt you or touch you on a private body part, even friends or family members.
 4. You have the right to tell others when they don't want to be touched. If someone makes you feel unsafe, you have the right to tell them to stop.	 5. Hitting, kicking, pinching, biting, and yelling are all abuse, and should never happen to anyone. It is never your fault if someone hurts you.	 6. Abuse is never your fault, but you can make choices to avoid situations that would be unsafe online and in real life.
