EXTRA MILE AWARD

Randi Ahlstrom is the Extra-Mile Award winner for September. Randi not only completes her job in central registration but continues to help out and show dedication in the teaching and learning department. Randi has worn many hats and taken on many responsibilities from managing, organizing, and preparing the literacy bus for outings, supporting the staff, purchasing for professional development and other duties as assigned. She does it with a smile, eagerness, and positive attitude without complaining. Randi is always full of energy and is consistently upbeat while making sure things run properly. She is the epitome of an outstanding team player and member of our BCSS staff, and is a great representation of an excellent, efficient, and dedicated employee. She is deserving of the Extra-Mile Award.
