A NOTE FROM MRS. VAN FOSSEN

As we count down the days until the school year begins, I wanted to take a moment to share our excitement for the year ahead. In just over two weeks, our hallways will once again be filled with the laughter and energy of your children. Our teachers and staff, although not officially back for a week, have been busy preparing to welcome each student and meeting them exactly where they are. Enjoy the remaining days of summer and we can't wait to see you soon!

At drop off, you will be able to meet your student's teacher and drop off school supplies.
