

SMFCSD- Policy Committee

MISSION:

The mission of the Superintendent's Policy Committee is to ensure that the Stow-Munroe Falls City School District is using policies that adequately reflect the needs of all stakeholders in the Stow-Munroe Falls City School District. The Superintendent's Policy Committee will:

- Review, revise, and develop district policies.
- Ensure policies comply with state and federal laws.
- Solicit input from stakeholders on policy changes.
- Recommend policies to the entire board for approval.

CREATION: The Stow-Munroe Falls City School District—Policy Committee's designee will be the district's Superintendent and the Director of Human Resources. The core group will consist of the following individuals.

- The Superintendent (Chief Executive Officer)
- Director of Human Resources
- The Director of Special Projects (as a resource)
- 2 Board of Education Members
- Administrative Assistant to the Superintendent
- Student Representative to the Board

MEETINGS: The Superintendent's Policy Committee will meet monthly. The Superintendent and the Director of Human Resources will lead the meetings as a team and establish all agendas.

REPORTS: The BOE member will provide updates to the Board regularly. Reports will be made available to the public via the District website: www.smfcsd.org

DURATION: The Superintendent's Policy Committee is a standing committee.

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

MEMBERSHIP: The district's Superintendent will solicit applications for membership on the Superintendent's Policy Committee. Membership is voluntary and limited to a maximum of (4) Stow or Munroe Falls City School District residents. There is a two-year term for membership; replacements will be added as needed. The core committee can revoke your membership at any time.

CHARACTER AND COMMUNITY REPRESENTATION: When considering candidates for this committee, it is essential to evaluate their character, as it profoundly impacts their role and the community's perception of the committee. Character is not merely about personal virtues but also how individuals project their values through their interactions and presence in everyday life, community interactions, and social media.

Candidates should demonstrate a commitment to the community that goes beyond mere participation. This includes their approach to collaboration, transparency, and integrity in their interactions with others. How they handle conflicts, their willingness to volunteer, and their ability to work with diverse groups are critical indicators of their suitability.

The manner in which candidates conduct themselves in daily life speaks volumes about their character. This includes their adherence to ethical standards, reliability, and the respect they show to others. Their actions should reflect a consistent dedication to the values that this committee upholds, such as accountability and responsible stewardship.

In the digital age, social media can significantly shape public perception. Candidates should be mindful of their online presence and how it aligns with their real-world behavior. Their social media profiles should reflect professionalism, respectfulness, and a positive attitude towards community involvement. Posts and interactions should be consistent with the values of transparency and ethical conduct. The character of committee members should be a reflection of the district's values and standards. How candidates represent themselves, both in person and online, impacts the committee's credibility and, by extension, the district's reputation. A candidate whose behavior is aligned with the district's mission will contribute to fostering trust and confidence within the community.

In summary, character is integral to the role of a committee member, influencing both the effectiveness of their contributions and the district's public image. Candidates should exhibit strong personal integrity, a commitment to ethical standards, and a conscientious approach to presenting themselves in all facets of their lives.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Attend Meetings: Participate actively in committee meetings, providing input and discussing policy matters.

Review Current Policies: Analyze current policies to determine what the policies are and are not currently addressing.

Revise and Develop Policies: Make recommendations to revise or develop policies that can more appropriately address the needs of the school district community.

Analyze: Ensuring that the policies comply with state and federal laws.

Communicate: Relay important information regarding school district policies to all stakeholders.
