A Fulton County library card provides access to materials and services as large and diverse as the communities of Fulton County.

A Fulton County library card provides access to materials and services as large and diverse as the communities of Fulton County.

Cards are free when you live in Fulton County or the City of Atlanta in DeKalb, or if you attend school here. We also issue free cards to teachers, businesses, property owners, and organizations in our service area. Non-residents may purchase a library card for a $40.00 annual fee. Please ask staff for more details to see how we can help you get a library card.

How do I get a card?

Complete this application and take it to the service desk at any Fulton County Library. Staff will need to see the ID required for the type of library card you apply for. For a resident card, the ID would state your name and Fulton County address; a school ID would verify your educator or non-resident student status; a property tax bill would verify your property ownership in the County; a business license would show where your business is located.

A message for parents and legal guardians:

You are responsible for the way your child's card is used. The Fulton County Library System attempts to provide appropriate material for all borrowers, but you, the parent or guardian, decide what material you want your child to check out or view in the library. Your child can use this card to access the internet, which may include email and chat rooms.

Your responsibility includes monitoring the nature and content of material your child checks out or accesses on library computers, and maintaining the condition of borrowed materials. You are responsible for all fines or damaged material on this card. If the card is lost, you are responsible for its use until you report the loss to us. Library staff is available to clarify any of our borrowing policies for you.
