WHAT WE'RE LEARNING

Math:

I can explore the dimensions of all possible rectangular prisms given a total number of cubic units.

I can explain how the volume of a right rectangular prism can be found by multiplying the area of the base times the height to solve.

Reading:

I can determine two or more main ideas of a text and explain how they are supported by key details; summarize the text.

Writing:

I can write an expository essay using various writing techniques.

Science:

I can obtain, evaluate, and communicate information to group organisms using scientific classification procedures.

I can develop a model that illustrates how plants are sorted into groups (seed producers, non-seed producers) using data from multiple sources.
