Overview: Students will be participating in a field trip to the Alliance Theatre to see The Reservoir. The purpose of this trip is to provide students with more enrichment of being part of a live audience. The Reservoir is about Josh's life is a mess. He's come home to Denver from NYU to get his life together but can't manage to stay sober. Desperate for camaraderie, he decides to bring his four loveable grandparents on his road to recovery. He drags them to Jazzercise class at the JCC. He pressures them into playing memory games. He forces them to eat spinach by the handful. And eventually, when he can no longer help his grandparents, they begin to help him. Served up with outrageous humor and truth, The Reservoir reminds us that sometimes the path forward isn't the one we expect. RECOMMENDED FOR AUDIENCES AGES 16 AND UP.
