

Scranton School District Secondary Social Studies Curriculum Pathways

 Indicates Preferred Path
  Indicates the student Exception
Questions about diversions from this chart must be discussed with the current classroom teacher and the Social Studies Department Chairperson.

Traditional Scranton School District Pathway for an academic student consists of at least one year of each of the following: US History 1790-1898, US History 1898-present, American Government and elective courses.