Did you know? A recent Carver County survey showed that a large percentage of people feel like they don't belong in their community – including Cologne – because of their political views. Attend this free interactive workshop – presented by Braver Angels MN – with discussion and a chance to practice skills for disagreeing better ... for a better community.

JOIN US, DISCUSS & LEARN:

- Skills for listening
- Understanding more fully
- Sharing your perspectives in constructive ways, even if you sharply disagree
- Have better conversations with people you disagree with about politics or differing views
- Finding more common ground than you thought possible and more.
