

Will you join us to prevent Youth Suicide?

St. Norbert College – Bemis Fort Howard Theater

Thursday, September 26th at 6:00 PM

Join us as Kirk Smalley tells the heartbreaking story of losing his 11-year-old son, Ty, to suicide after being bullied by another student. During this presentation, Kirk will walk you through the day that forever changed his life. Since that day, he and his wife Laura made it their goal to prevent youth suicide and ensure that this never happens to another family.

Our presentation will last approximately 1-1 ¼ hours. Snacks and beverages will be provided after the presentation. Tickets are free (must have ticket reserved to attend). Recommended for middle school age children & above.
