

THE PROGRAM

Mark Trach, a certified U.S.P.T.A. Professional and L-S Head tennis coach, will be conducting a local Junior Tennis Camp Program at the Lampeter-Strasburg High School for the 29th year. This program is available for any children or young adults from the ages of 8 to 18 who are interested in learning and playing the fabulous sport of tennis. Players of all ability levels are welcome, and encouraged to participate.

All players will learn basic stroke mechanics, rules and scoring, and play strategy. Each player will participate in various skills and drills and round robin tournament play where players can experience valuable yet friendly competition. Rainy days will be held indoors at the Hans Herr Elementary School. The camp will follow all components of the District's PK-12 Athletics Health and Safety Plan.

DAYS AND TIMES

Each weekly or daily camp will be arranged as follows: Mon. to Fri. 9:00-11:00 am
Note - Friday's schedule will involve match play at L-S or another tennis camp and the away matches may be played in the afternoon. If it rains Friday, camp is cancelled because the school district is closed.

OBJECTIVES

1. To teach and develop tennis skills and fundamentals with emphasis on stroke mechanics, strategy, and team play.
2. To develop a positive attitude in players concerning tennis, sport athletics, and practical life skills.
3. To provide valuable competitive experiences that allow players to apply skills as they are learned.

TUITION

CAMP - $120 per week or $25 per day

Discounts (only applicable for weekly camp)

10% off tuition if enrolled for the 3 full weeks paid at the start of camp.

Deposits - A $120 deposit must be included with each application to reserve a space in the camp. This deposit will go towards tuition.
