POSITIVE THINKING

Words to Live By

You control more than you think you do, both in your life and in the lives of other people. As you go through your day consider the following:

Always be Kind.

Listen to others.

Show empathy for those who are struggling.

If at first you don't succeed, figure out a new plan and try again.

If you have more, share.

Believe in yourself.

Empower others to do good things.

Leave the world better than you found it.
