

GCHS Tome Student Literacy Society

Student Application

Do you like to read and are you competitive? Our GCHS Tome Student Literacy Society is looking for fifteen (15) students who like to read and enjoy talking and competing with each other as well as students from across the state. Those members who participate in the various competitions will be invited to a state conference in early spring. At this event TomeCon members can interact with student writers, technology experts, authors and illustrators, and more. If your grade point average is 3.5 or above and if you are a junior or senior, you may be eligible to join the elite Tome Student Literacy Society, Tau Omicron Mu Epsilon Honors Society.
