Anderson Island Elementary
Good afternoon, Eagle Families,

September 20, 2024

We had another great week here at Anderson Island Elementary! I'd like to take a moment to wish Leo, Gabe, and Mrs. Tate a very happy birthday, as they will all be celebrating their birthdays this week.

This week, we also took the time to discuss our emergency drills. These drills are important for keeping our school community safe, and we'll practice them monthly throughout the year to ensure everyone is prepared.

As always, I encourage you to get outside this weekend and enjoy the last days of summer. Take time to rest, and don't forget to pick up a good book!

I look forward to seeing you all on Monday.

Notes from the Classroom

This week we worked hard on completing our I-Ready Reading and Math Diagnostic assessments (almost everyone finished). Although this assignment is long (and sometimes tedious), it provides great data. We also completed two wonderful book studies; kindergarten and 1st-grade students focused on Huggapotamus while 2nd and 3rd-grade students learned about respect while reading Chester's Way. During specialist time, we learned about and created neurons and brains, checked out books in the library, had a wonderful music lesson with instruments, and worked on a plant scavenger hunt! As we head into the weekend, I want to wish you all a great time. I'm looking forward to seeing you all next week for more exciting learning adventures!

Let us help Anderson Island Elementary Eagles Soar!
