Who You Gonna Call? (Ghostbusters!)

Do you have a question or concern that needs to be addressed with the school? For general concerns (grades, classroom expectations/procedures, etc.) we ask that you first begin with the classroom teacher that it would be most relevant to. I often receive emails/calls from parents with questions or about situations that can be addressed with the teacher first. If you feel that your situation has not been resolved after speaking with the teacher, then admin are happy to assist.

The same could also be said of social media situations that occur outside of school. We encourage parents to call one another to address online student behaviors that happen off school grounds.
Thank you for your support!
-Mr. Legler, Principal
