2023 Meritorious Hall of Fame Inductees

Dr. Gail Kulick

Dr. Gail Kulick is 1984 graduate of East Stroudsburg High School where she was a member of both chorus and the Choraliers (shortly known as the Show Choir) throughout entire ESHS career, as well as a member of the yearbook committee and Art Club. She was also involved in establishing a peer counseling group for students struggling with addictions and was the 1984 recipient of the Fred Waring Choral award.

Dr. Kulick earned a BS in Elementary Ed. with a Concentration in Music from E. Stroudsburg University in 1988 and a M.Ed. in Reading in 1989 while serving as a Graduate Assistant in the Reading Department. In 2019, she received an Ed. D. in K-12 Organizational Leadership from Grand Canyon University.

During her career Dr. Kulick served as a Reading Specialist in the Pen Argyl Area School District. At ESASD, she served as an Assistant Principal at JM Hill, North Courtland, and Resica Elementary Schools and K-12 Coordinator of Professional Development from 1998-99 and as Principal at Resica Elementary School from 1999-present. During her career at ESASD, she also served on the District Safety Committee and as Chairperson for the Safety Awareness Sub-Committee, serves on the English Language Arts Committee, and has established numerous committees within Resica Elementary aimed at improving parent education, School-Wide Positive Behavior, ability and cultural awareness, safety/crisis in the school, and school improvement.

Fulfilling a desire to serve her community, Dr. Kulick has worked as a volunteer EMT with Bushkill Emergency Corps since 1982 where she presently serves as Vice-President and Recording Secretary, continues to serve as an American Heart Association CPR/AED Instructor, and as Co-Chair for rebuilding the Resica Elementary School Community Playground. She has also served on the E. Stroudsburg University Alumni Board, on the E. Stroudsburg Halls and Walls of Fame Steering Committee, and as a Co-Chair of the Stroudsburgs Rotary Satellite Club. Since 1980, she has been a song leader and choir member for St. Matthew's Church in E. Stroudsburg

Dr. Kulick is most grateful to her parents, Joseph and Barbara Kulick, who served as her greatest models for community service, love of learning and education, support for her passion for music, and, most importantly, their unyielding love and support. However, the achievement she is most proud of is being the mother to her son, Jonathan Kulick-Cummings.
