Bond Project Oversight Committee Responsibilities

The Bond Project Oversight Committee's task is to ensure the scope, cost, and timeline of each construction project under the 2013 bond referendum. To carry out its mission, the Bond Project Oversight Committee will meet to receive reports on the status and implementation of bond projects to determine whether projects are on-schedule, on-budget and on-target with the construction program approved by the voters.

Bond Project Oversight Mission Statement: To ensure the scope, cost, and timeline of each construction project of the 2013 bond referendum.

Duties: (1) To receive reports on the current status and planned implementation of the bond program; (2) To determine whether such status and implementation are consistent with the program approved by the voters; and (3) To report findings to the Board. The committee informs and advises the Board, but does not have decision-making authority.

Communication: Communication with staff will be through the Committee Chair. Communication with the public will be through committee reports received by the Board.

Meetings: The committee will meet quarterly or as requested by the school Board, Superintendent, or Committee Chair. Staff reports may be provided to the Committee between meetings when appropriate. As appropriate, written Committee reports will be presented to the Board, Superintendent, and public at open Board meetings. Copies will be available to the public.

Bond Oversight Meetings
The first meeting today September 10, 2013 is to discuss roles and responsibilities and to receive information on the status of the 2013 Bond Program. Future meetings will be conducted on the second Tuesday of the month every 3 months. The next 3 meetings are Dec 10th, Mar 4th, and Jun 10th.

Bond Oversight Membership
Susie Allen serves as the Chairman of the Bond Project Oversight Committee. The duration of the bond is expected to be about 3.5 years. If committee members are not able to serve to completion of the bond, new members may be added as appropriate.
