

A. D. Ewing School

The Ewing School is located at 4873 East Olive between Chestnut and Willow. It is first listed in the Fresno Unified School District directory in the issue of 1952-53. It serves elementary age children.

Achilles Dudley Ewing, for whom this school is named was born on February 14, 1861, and died on March 21, 1945. Mr. Ewing held public office in Fresno for nearly 50 years. He held positions, elective and appointive at various times in the governments of both Fresno City and Fresno County. He served many years as city and county Deputy Treasurer and Treasurer. After leaving that office, he was elected as a member of the Fresno Unified School District Board of Education.

A native of Missouri, Mr. Ewing married his wife Mollie Mundy in June 1890, at and moved with family to the Fresno area and spent his entire life here. Mr. Ewing spent a short period in San Francisco acquiring a business education, including accounting. Despite losing his right arm at an early age in a train accident, Ewing carried on with no evident impairment of his ability. He performed the offices which he held with distinction and success. He was a leader in civic activities and church work throughout his long life.

A. D. Ewing