

Terronez Middle School

This school site is named for Elizabeth Terronez (1944-1992). A graduate of Edison High School and Fresno State, whose career led her to serve children as a teacher, vice principal and principal.

During her career at Fresno Unified, she served as principal at Yosemite Middle School, Hoover High School and Bullard High School before her death in 1992 at age 48.

The school opened in January of 2000 as a 7-8 grade middle school. For a period of time, the site was converted to a 6, 7, 8 grade middle school.

Terronez Middle School is located at 2300 South Willow Ave.
