

MARION SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEETING
MARION PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Marion, Massachusetts

May 23, 2024
REGULAR MEETING MINUTES
16 Spring Street, Marion, MA 02738

Regular meeting of the Marion School Committee was held on Thursday, May 23, 2024 and called to order by Chairperson Nye, at 6:03pm.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEMBERS PRESENT: April Nye, Chairperson (in-person), Mary Beauregard (in-person), Nichole Daniel (in-person), Nichole Nye McGaffey (in-person) and Michelle Smith (in-person).

SCHOOL COMMITTEE MEMBERS ABSENT: None

OTHERS PRESENT: Michael S. Nelson, Superintendent (in-person); Sharlene Fedorowicz, Assistant Superintendent of Teaching and Learning (in-person); Doreen Lopes, Early Childhood Director (as Acting Principal) (in-person); Melissa Wilcox, Recording Secretary (in-person); staff, parents, members of the press and public.

Chairperson Nye, stated in accordance with Massachusetts Open Meeting Law, the agenda has been set, the meeting is being recorded, and unless there are any emergencies that need to be added, the agenda will be followed as outlined. Chairperson Nye read the following statement: This meeting will be conducted in a hybrid format. School Committee, Administrators and the public will have the option of meeting in person at the Community Room of the Sippican School located at 16 Spring Street, Marion, MA 02738 or via zoom.

Recognition

Superintendent Nelson and Chairperson Nye thanked Ms. Milde and congratulated her on her upcoming retirement. A group of faculty present shared the following comments:

Elizabeth Milde has been a part of the Sippican School community for 11 years. In her time as the Enrichment teacher and member of the 5th grade team, she has dedicated her time, energy and effort into her students. Elizabeth looks for the best in her students and encourages them to stretch their thinking, take chances with their learning, overcome challenges, and believe in themselves. She does this with kindness and compassion.

As a colleague, Elizabeth is a team player. She is knowledgeable, hard working, and respectful. When collaborating with her team or discussing student matters, she is child focused and advocates for what is best for all students. Her love for diving into American history with her students in order to have them understand our country's past, as well as showing them that they have a voice in our democracy has been something I've always admired about Elizabeth. It has been a privilege to learn and work alongside her for all of these years.

I especially admire Elizabeth's ability to connect with the most challenging of students. Even the students who admittedly insist that they "hate" writing can actively participate in Elizabeth's classes. One of the ways she does this is by making sure all writing topics have student choice. When they want to write their persuasive essay about how students should be allowed to have unlimited candy during MCAS or wear pajamas everyday to school, she will guide them into a convincing argument, even if she strongly disagrees. In Social Studies, Elizabeth's style appealed to students because she presented the information and then challenged students to draw their own conclusions. I know that students who don't normally participate will raise their hands to explain their position on an issue in her class. She is very savvy to tap into their natural 5th grade argumentative tendencies. Elizabeth is always able to smile and see the humor that oftentimes arises when working with elementary students.

Elizabeth is a mentor. Prior to coming to Marion she worked in the Newton school system and was a Mattapoisett School Committee Member. Her past experiences brought a wealth of knowledge to the team. She is a planner. Always thinking about what comes next and sharing her ideas with the team. I admire her willingness to take charge and spearhead ideas not only on the fifth grade team, but with staff as well. She isn't afraid to ask questions and is reflective in all aspects of her day. It is what makes her a truly great teacher. Most of all, I am proud to call her my friend. The Marion Teachers Association proudly recognizes Elizabeth Milde for the 2023-2024 Merit Award.

Next, Ms. Bourgeois recognized Ms. Barrett for the Merit Award.

Marilyn Johnson said, "Good librarians are natural intelligence operatives. They possess all of the skills and characteristics required for that work: curiosity, wide-ranging knowledge, good memories, organization and analytical aptitude, and discretion.” This quote describes Jess Barrett accurately, which is why I nominate Jess Barrett for the 2024 merit award. I asked Jess to make me a list of all the committees and projects she is involved with so that I wouldn’t overlook anything. Following that list she wrote, “There really aren’t that many things that I do around the school! Here are a few...” with emphasis on “a few.”

I immediately stopped stressing about how I was going to adequately represent the exemplary work Jess does, as you will soon understand after hearing the list of all of Jess’ commitments, besides working what must be a 50-60 hour week and raising two children! Here is the list.

- 1. VASE rep. This includes attending the monthly meetings, sending out an update to staff, bringing up questions and issues that impact teaching in the building.*
- 2. Character Counts program -Jess researches and selects the books for the year in June before school ends, order them so they are ready to go in September. She gets all the information to teachers, fills the orders from students every Friday morning, and assembles the announcement for the monthly All School Meetings.*
- 3. Jess also organizes R.I.F. - (Reading is Fundamental) Similar to Character Counts, this requires LOTS of pre-planning (selecting 17 options for each grade level), getting orders from every student in grades PreK-6, and then going through to assemble the orders. When a book is out of stock Jess goes with the students' 2nd choice! Clearly this can take a lot of time! Then, when the books arrive Jess sorts them all by student, plans a thank you project for the Braitmayer Family who pays for the books, and then has a RIF Day to distribute the books and give each class a chance to make a final decision about the book they selected.*
- 4. Summer Reading - Jess meets with the public librarian after school hours to develop lists for each grade level for suggested summer reading. She coordinates and facilitates field trips to the Elizabeth Taber Library every June for grades K-5.*
- 5. Vocabulary Day - Jess plans the implementation of Vocabulary Day. Last year this included meeting with and planning with Corinna Raznikov-Wisner, to organize the events for the Day itself along with planning the Gallery Reveal in June, where student pictures were displayed on the bulletin boards. Communicating with VASE regarding photo release and donations for Corinna. This year will be simplified without the photography piece, but Jess is still planning the All School Meeting and creating the promotional material for families and teachers.*
- 6. Retirement/Party Planning - Years ago, Jess began helping with retirement celebration planning. Since then she has maintained the retired staff contact list, and with the assistance of other staff members generated the "how-to" document for planning a retirement celebration. In addition, Jess happily helps with many other community celebrations that require invitations, donations, and coordinating.*
- 7. Winter Reading Challenge - Jess plans the annual Winter Reading Challenge that runs from mid-January until February break. She selects a theme, sets a goal and a purpose, and communicates the message to students and families. Participants are recognized with certificates/awards, along with a public recognition at the next All School Meeting.*
- 8. Annual Hour of Code - The national computer science week is celebrated annually during the first week in December. Jess plans the Hour of Code for all Sippican students, selects new coding challenges and opportunities for students to experience, and writes grants to bring new technology into the library (ex. Jess won a $2500 grant from MassCUE last spring to order 5 new Marty robots).*
- 9. Spring Book Fair - Jess plans and runs the spring Book Fair. More than making money from this event, her goal is to keep kids excited about finding new things to read and to develop new interests. She ensures that every student who wishes to shop at the Book Fair is able to with the help of our "Book Fairy" program. She reaches out to classroom teachers to ask which students may be in need of a gift from the Book Fairy. At the time of shopping she very nonchalantly makes sure that these students receive an envelope with a $10 gift card in it. She uses profits earned from running the Fair to finance this opportunity.*
- 10. Additionally, Jess gathers books on a theme classroom teachers need and sets them aside for you.*

Another thing Jess coordinated, that needs to be remembered, even retroactively, are the significant hours Jess spent creating video for teachers, cataloged of course with a table of contents, modeling for teachers the many ways they could manage and operate Google Classroom, during the pandemic. Jess was an amazing asset to staff in this area, as she is incredibly tech savvy. I personally reached out to her on a regular basis for tech support and she always helped with a generous spirit.

After having taught both of her kids, I know where they get these skills from. I recall her daughter, at the age of 6, eagerly solving problems and managing challenges. One time I was one paper short so I gave her a blank paper, knowing she would happily write her math answers on it and not complain. Not only did she not complain, but she recreated the page to look exactly like the one I passed out. It had a ten frame, which required her to use a ruler and make ten squares of equal size and dotted numbers to trace, and objects to circle to match the amount. I absolutely knew where she gets her resourcefulness from, as well as her composure in managing challenging tasks.

Jess not only inspires her own children, but our students and staff as well. Here are some things kids said about Jess, "I love that she encourages kids to read. She helps me find books. She suggested a Koala book." "She's really nice and I love when she gives me an I Am (famous person) book. I read them at home and asked her if we had any at school. She showed me where they are in the library." "I love how she lets us do Chromebooks and choose books because she has a lot of good books!" It is for these many reasons Jess Barrett is deserving of our Merit Award.

Sippican School Library

End of Year Review - 2024

From: Jessica Barrett, Library Teacher

To: Doreen Lopes, Interim Principal, and the Marion School Committee

Date: May 2, 2024

Re: Materials Being Withdrawn from the Sippican School Library

Doreen,

Please find attached a list of materials being withdrawn from the library's collection. Most titles being removed were in advanced stages of disrepair, were attacked by household pets, were significantly out-of-date, or were victim to the ceiling leak this fall.

Please note the following statistics:

- 17, 5183 - Number of items in our library collection
- 14,864 - Number of items checked out this school year (with three more weeks to go!)
- 2002 - Average year of publication for our collection
- 361 - Number of titles added to our collection this school year
- 292 - Number of titles being weeded this year
- 141 - Number of times that Let's Go for a Drive by Mo Willems was checked out before it completely fell apart.
- 110 - Number of books damaged by the ceiling leak this fall
- 41 - Number of times that Dog Man: Grime and Punishment by Dav Pilkey was checked out (our top circulated title for the second year in a row!)

If you have any questions or would like further clarification, please let me know. It is a pleasure to teach at Sippican School!

Sincerely,

Jessica C. Barrett

Library Discard List - Spring 2024

Some discarded books are eaten by household pets!

Others are damaged by leaking water bottles.

After her father died, her older brother began a newspaper, but William "wasn't the best newspaper owner," and loyal Katharine spent her life running the paper he started and abandoned, printing patriotic articles against Britain's unfair treatment of the colonies. The title serves as the beginning of a refrain: "Her name was Mary Katharine and she had an important job to do." One of her important jobs was printing the Declaration of Independence, upon which she included her whole name instead of her usual initials. Detailed but static watercolor and digital illustrations look appropriately old-fashioned. With a glossary and selected sources, the back matter also includes an author's note which describes the later years of Mary Katharine's life and reveals that she had an enslaved person, whom she freed upon her death. VERDICT This brings deserved attention to an overlooked patriot, and is highly recommended.-Jenny Arch(c) Copyright 2011.

When British rule became unbearable in the 1770s for the people of Pepperell, MA, the men formed a resistance group against King George III of England. Prudence Wright had an idea that the women of her town could stage their own rebellious acts by doing small things against unjust British laws, so they refused to purchase and consume English goods. After being warned of advancing British troops and that war was imminent, the men took up arms and left their wives and children in order to fight for their rights. The Pepperell women worked as farmers and merchants, performing the essential jobs their husbands had previously done. How Prudence rallied the townswomen to arm themselves, kept watch at a bridge she realized would be used by Tory spies, and captured two messengers who planned to pass along information for the British informs makes for a thrilling tale. Striking digital drawings and watercolors are filled with details in mostly subdued colors, such as gray, brown, tan, and burgundy. Back matter includes an afterword, author's note, illustrator's note, and an impressive bibliography for further research. VERDICT This piece of American history is presented in an attractive package that will be readily enjoyed by readers of all ages.-Maryann H. Owen(c) Copyright 2011.
