ABOUT THE GREENWICH COMMUNITY

Greenwich, Connecticut is a suburban community of over 63,000 residents, located less than an hour from the heart of New York City. A large percentage of residents are college graduates in professional and business careers. The community enjoys a long history of support for its public schools.

Greenwich High School offers over 350 different courses and a wide variety of co-curricular activities. The school fields forty-two varsity teams which have won numerous county, state and regional championships. Students and teachers consistently earn recognition and high honors not only for academic achievement, but also for artistic, dramatic and musical accomplishments.

DEMOGRAPHIC PROFILE

Greenwich High School is a four-year comprehensive high school serving 2,700 students of cultural, economic and ethnic diversity. Students are randomly assigned to one of five houses, and represent the demographic diversity of the Town of Greenwich: White 59%, Hispanic/Latin 25%, Asian 8%, Other 5%, Black 3%. Free or reduced lunch eligible is 19%.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination) is a nationally recognized research-based framework and curriculum which supports students through writing, inquiry, collaboration, organization, and reading in their preparation to attend college.

The ESL (English for Speakers of other Languages) Program provides classes in English, Mathematics, Social Studies, Biology and Chemistry for students with limited English proficiency.

Honors Science Research is a course for students to select, develop and conduct an independent research project and develop the skills of reporting and presenting their research.

The Independent Study Program awards credit (Pass/Fail grade) to students who pursue projects outside of the curriculum. All projects are approved and evaluated by an Independent Study Committee.

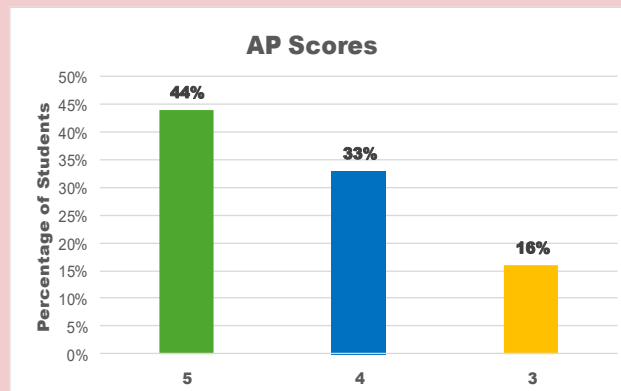

Shapers of the World is an interdisciplinary humanities course in which students explore how human beings have shaped their individual experiences in ways that have had a significant impact on society. Students examine common threads which link such disciplines as literature, art, music, philosophy, history and science in the development of human civilization.

We The People is a special section of the AP Government courses in which students participate in a state and national level constitutional law contest conducted in a congressional hearing format.
