

April 15is sign-up deadline for Liberty, Victory & Legacy Charter Schools' Annual Lotteries

Nampa, ID -- April 15, 2025, is more than tax day this year, it's also the deadline for parents and guardians to sign up their children for the annual lotteries for the Liberty, Victory, and Legacy Charter School Districts. Each of these school district's lottery will determine its 2025-2026 waiting lists. Although Liberty, Victory, and Legacy are all Harbor Schools in Nampa, each school is considered its own district, requiring separate lotteries to be held. Therefore, those interested must sign up their children at each school in one of the following ways:

- Complete the lottery form at each school in Nampa during school hours, 8 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday-Friday. Liberty is located at 9955 Kris Jensen Lane; Victory at 9779 Kris Jensen Lane; and Legacy at 4015 S. Legacy Way.
- Go to each school's website: libertycharterschool.com, victorycharterschool.net, legacycharterschool.net, and follow the instructions for submitting online, by email, or fax. Instructions in Spanish are also available on each school's website.

Parents and guardians can confirm that the schools received their lottery submissions by calling Liberty at 208-466-7952, Victory at 208-442-9400, and Legacy at 208-467-0947. The schools will hold their lotteries on April 23, 2025, as follows: Liberty at 3 pm, Victory at 3:45 pm, and Legacy at 4:30 pm. If a parent/guardian needs to complete the forms in a format other than English, or needs an interpreter to assist in completion, assistance by the school(s) will be provided. Those needing this service, please contact the school prior to April 15, 2025, to make arrangements.

Liberty, Victory, and Legacy Charter Schools are public schools and, therefore, do not charge tuition.

More information about Liberty, Victory, and Legacy:

- Liberty, Victory and Legacy Charter Schools are Harbor Method Schools that offer an advanced learning curriculum that teaches above grade-level academics while providing multiple opportunities for students to learn concepts. We hold to the premise that all children are capable of learning much more than we suspect and if they don't get today, they'll get it tomorrow; if not tomorrow, then next week, and so on, and we build in the support necessary to provide the means to make it happen.
- Liberty, Victory, and Legacy Charter Schools operate on a modified, year-round schedule, which includes a two-week break in October, a one-week Thanksgiving break, and two-week break over Christmas & New Year's, a two-week spring break, and a nine-week summer.
- All three school districts operate on a five-day school week.
- Liberty, Victory, and Legacy Charter Schools outperform nearby school districts' and the State's overall ISAT testing annual outcomes.
- Again this past year, Liberty and Victory both saw 100% of its high school seniors graduate.
- Liberty and Victory are K-12 schools. Legacy is a K-8 school.
- All three offer the federal, free & reduced breakfast and lunch program, as well as busing.
- The Harbor Method's anti-bullying stance has created a character education program that puts in place high expectations for behavior for students, teachers, staff, and parents that has resulted in zero to near-zero reports of bullying incidents year over year.
- Liberty and Victory's high schools have robust college concurrent credit programs that allow students the opportunity to earn up to two years' worth of college credit by the time they graduate at virtually no cost to parents. Also, through dual enrollment, high school students at Liberty and Victory can take advantage of class offerings at each school.
- All three school districts are among Idaho's top schools/districts in terms of academic performance, earning them each the designation as a "Top Performer" from the State. Their students' educational outcomes have also earned them distinctions as "Goal-Makers" by the State.
- The high schools at Liberty and Victory offer a variety of extra-curricular activities, including sports, travel abroad, school/community service, National Honor Society, and student government. The sports programs routinely advance to district and State tournaments, and student athletes have received college academic and athletic scholarships. Victory's music program has become one of the strongest in the State, with its concert choir receiving high marks at State and regional festivals, and its advanced jazz ensemble performing by invitation at state and regional music educators' conventions. Music students often place or win in their division at State and regional competitions and are routinely awarded music scholarships.

To learn more about each school district, please visit their websites. School tours can be scheduled by calling each school. To learn more about each school's academic outcomes and to compare with other schools and districts, visit www.idahoschools.org.

Notice of Non-Discrimination: In accordance with applicable federal and state laws, such as Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, and the Americans with Disabilities Act and ADA Amendments, Liberty Charter School District #458, Victory Charter School District #451, and Legacy Charter School District #478 do not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, national origin, age, disability, marital status, genetic information, veteran status, or any other protected status under federal, state or local law applicable to Liberty, Victory, or Legacy, in their education programs and activities, in employment policies and practices, and all other areas of each school district. The full Notice of Non-Discrimination can be found on each school district's website.

[Posted to school website & school building front office window 9/27/2024 to 4/23/2025]