In celebration of South High School homecoming this week, Lincoln Elementary School's future South High School Bruins are showing their Bruin Pride with Spirit Week. The week-long celebration at Lincoln is culminating in a Homecoming Tailgate Lunch on Friday.

Lincoln students will be joined by their families and loved ones for a picnic lunch outside the school to celebrate homecoming game day. Families are encouraged to bring a special meal for their students, or they can have school lunch. They will sit outside on blankets or in folding chairs just as if they were tailgating before a game. They are also encouraged to attend the homecoming football game at 5 p.m. at South High School.
