

PORTRAIT OF AN ALTAMONT GRADUATE

Compassionate

- Respects views, customs, and beliefs of individuals in a diverse community
- Improves society through civic engagement and stewardship of natural resources
- Displays humility and willingness to live outside the self

Well-educated

- Balances academics with arts, athletics, and community engagement
- Analyzes and evaluates information in order to articulate and support personal views
- Appreciates beauty in the natural world and the arts

Independent

- Inspires others through authentic self-expression, passion, values, and deeds
- Demonstrates integrity, honor, and responsibility in all actions
- Strives for physical and emotional well-being, acknowledges personal limitations, and knows when to ask for help

Innovative

- Takes risks to effect change for the common good
- Embraces discovery and the mistakes essential to learning
- Collaborates with others in order to solve problems and put ideas into action

