- Review school-wide initiatives to address learning loss

Initiatives to address MAP scores

- Data team meets weekly.
- Instructional coach and intervention coach meet with teachers and content teams.
- Intervention class started 2nd semester to work with middle school students.
  - 16 middle school students meet twice a week to work on math and english skills
  - We expect MAP scores to go up in the spring as a result.
- Utilizing software
  - No Red Ink works well for targeted lessons and includes test related skills
  - IXL is used for math
  - Lexia is used for special ed kids the 16 middle school kids in the intervention class
  - Amplify for reading
  - New math curriculum Into Math now for K-12.
  - In our 2nd year working on remedial math for IEP students and transfer students who are missing skills.
  - New this year: After school tutoring from 2:00-4:00 2 days a week.
    - Kids are attending
    - New teachers are open to staying and helping kids.
  - READ act training is in process at the Principal level.

available for those who do not want to use paper.

- Kids that are not reading at grade level by 3rd grade go on a read plan to help catch them up.

WI23 MAP Data

- Winter testing is right before winter break. The timing is poor and scores tend to be lower.
- This document illustrates where Two Roads falls in comparison to other charters and area schools.
- Two Roads shows a lot of growth in reading.
  - We grew by 52 points
  - Two Roads falls under high performance and high growth for reading.
- Math needs improvement
  - In the low performance and low growth quadrant for math.
  - Our initiatives are designed to work on these areas and improve scores during spring testing.
  - Lots of new kids entered the school with gaps in their learning and need support to catch up.

SPF

- Has not changed since last year
- We are rated as a performance school in the green.
- Two Roads is one of 3 schools with a 100% graduation rate for the past 2 years.
  - We anticipate a 100% graduation rate this year as well.
