

UNITED PATTERSON PROFILE - WILLIAM SAMARRIPA

William Samarripa is the son of Mr. Bill Samarripa and the late Mrs. Geneva Samarripa and a proud graduate of Patterson High School, Class of 2010. While attending Patterson High, William participated in weightlifting classes and other physical education activities. William credits his teacher Mr. Rob Cozart and counselor Mrs. Kathy Martinez for motivating him to do well in school. Upon graduation, William went on to explore his passion for fitness. He discovered CrossFit 12 years ago and has since turned his newfound passion into a lifestyle. Initially drawn to the community-driven aspect of the sport, William quickly embraced the challenging workouts, which blend weightlifting, cardio, and gymnastics. He does competitions at Crossfit events as an Individual and Team category. Today, he continues to push his limits while inspiring others to do the same. William has taken it upon himself to educate friends and family on the benefits of CrossFit, helping them improve their overall health and fitness.
