National Hispanic and Latino Heritage Month: This month, we will share quotes from Latinos who have made an impact in our world. Latinos are from or have ancestry in Mexico, the Caribbean, Central America, Spain, and South America. Sra. Moreno chose today's Hispanic and Latino Heritage month quote. Sra. Moreno's cousin, Lin-Manuel Miranda, a Latino playwright, songwriter, actor, singer, filmmaker and rapper, once said, "I am the one thing in life I can control. I am inimitable – I am an original." It runs in the family. ¡Feliz viernes!

Our Cross-Country Team has a meet today at 4:00 pm. Come out to the track and cheer them on! Runners, please hydrate today. It's going to be a warm one. Meet on the track at 3:30 for warmups.

Our 6th Grade Girls Volleyball Team travels to Pacific Grove Middle School tomorrow at 12pm. Go Cougars!!

On Tuesday, the lady Cougars Soccer Team traveled to Seaside Middle school to take on the Eagles. The ladies had a rough start with the Eagles scoring 2 goals quickly in the first half. The Cougars quickly answered back when Nelly Salano Remirez sent a cross to Left Midfielder Gabby Da Silva who easily put it in the back of the net. Nelly also had a great finish but unfortunately it was not enough to defeat the Eagles on their home turf with the game ending in a 4-2 loss.

In the 6th Grade Wiffleball Tournament of Donuts yesterday, the LA Ferocious Flaming Flamingos beat the Nakalaca Alpacas by a score of 10 to 3 after the Flamingos scored 5 points in the first inning with Cullin Voss hitting a homerun. The Alpacas put up a strong fight with several double plays and base hits, but it wasn't enough to put those pink birds to bed. Tevan Barca-Hall of the Alpacas said, "We played well compared to the other teams that the Flamingos beat." After the game Coach Allen of the Flamingos said, "Love is the most important thing in the world, but wiffle ball is pretty good too." On Monday, the LittleTown Lysol will try to extinguish the Magrantasaurus Rexes.
