The last day of the time period shall be included unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday.

Section 3. Step One: When a employee or group of employees has a grievance, the employee or an agent of the exclusive representative shall attempt to resolve the matter with the employee’s immediate supervisor within 21 days after the employee, through the use of reasonable diligence, should have had knowledge of the event or act giving rise to the grievance. The supervisor shall then attempt to resolve the matter and shall respond in writing to the grievant and / or the agent of the exclusive representative within five days after the grievance is presented.

Subd 2. Selection of arbitrator. Within ten days for the service of written notice of intent to arbitrate, the Superintendent or designee shall consult with the employee and / or agent of the exclusive representative and endeavor to mutually agree upon an arbitrator to hear and decide the grievance. If the parties do not agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, either party may request a list of impartial arbitrators from the bureau. The parties shall alternately strike names from a list of seven names to be provided by the bureau until only one name remains, and the remaining name shall be the designated arbitrator. The determination of which party will commence the striking process shall be made by mutual agreement or a flip of a coin. If one party refuses to strike names from the list provided by the bureau, the other party may serve written notice of this fact upon the bureau, with a copy to the offending party. Unless it is confirmed that the parties have otherwise selected or agreed upon an arbitrator within three days of service of the notice of refusal or failure to strike names, the bureau shall designate one name from the list previously provided to the parties and the person so designated by the bureau shall have full power to act as the arbitrator of the grievance.

Each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses except to the extent provided by Section 7, Subd. 1.
- Subd 5. Transcripts and briefs. Because arbitration is intended to provide a simple, speedy alternative to litigation processes, the use of transcripts and briefs should be considered only in exceptional circumstances. If a verbatim record is required, it may be prepared providing the party desiring the record pays the cost and makes a copy available to the other party and the arbitrator without charge. The arbitrator may maintain written notes of the hearing and may use an electronic recording device to supplement the note taking. These notes shall be considered the arbitrator's private and personal property and shall not be made available to the parties or another third party. If a recording device is used by the arbitrator to supplement the arbitrator's notes, the arbitrator shall retain the recording for a period of 90 days following the issuance of the award.

No more than three employees shall be entitled to compensation for participation in a single meeting or hearing with respect to any one grievance.
- Subd 2. Waiver of steps. The parties may by written mutual agreement waive participation in the grievance steps in Section 3 to Section 5 and may similarly agree to extend the time limits established by Section 3 to Section 6.
- Subd 3. Time limits. A failure to raise a grievance within the time limits specified in Section 3, or to initiate action at the next step of the procedure in Section 3 to Section 6 within the time limits in these parts shall result in forfeiture by the employee and / or exclusive representative of the right to pursue the grievance.
