

Name _____

Grade Level _____

School _____

School Year _____

In accordance with RCW 28A.230.05, high school students may earn PE competency credit for participating in directed athletics or military science (i.e. school sports; officially organized/regulated community sports under the supervision of a coach; JROTC). In order to earn credit, students must turn in this completed form AND pass the district approved PE knowledge test.

Name of directed athletics /military science:

School or Governing Body: _____

*Organized community sports must be through an official and regulated organization.

Dates of sports season: _____

By signing this form, I am affirming that the above student completed a full season, had regular attendance (90% or better for the entire season) and followed all rules and regulations of the organization.

Student: _____

Date: _____

Parent: _____

Date: _____

Coach: _____

Date: _____

Please return completed forms to the Teaching and Learning department, together with proof of passing the district approved PE knowledge test. Forms can be delivered to the district administration building or emailed to jolene.carlson@ksd.org