TABLETOP STRATEGIES

CAMPAIGN INTERNSHIP

Interested in politics, government, social change, or just becoming a more engaged citizen? Here's your chance to learn more and make an impact!

About Us

Established in early 2022 and based in Stockton, California, Tabletop Strategies (TTS) is a full-service political strategy firm that develops winning campaigns for state and local candidates throughout Northern California.

We are seeking passionate and hardworking interns for the 2024 election cycle. This is a great opportunity to build valuable skills and connections in the local political environment. Depending on their interests, interns will be assigned to various tasks, including contacting voters via phonebanks, graphic design in Canva, record-keeping through Google Sheets, planning fundraising events, and research delving into a wide range of important policy issues. Interns will learn from a diverse, supportive team of experienced strategists as well as candidates for local, state, and federal offices.

Requirements

- Maintain at least a 2.0 GPA.
- Commit at least 5 hours per week and communicate changes in your schedule.
- Introverts welcome, but open-mindedness, enthusiasm, and teamwork are required.
- Prior experience in politics not needed, but be ready to step outside your comfort zone, take constructive feedback, and learn!

Benefits

- Community service hours, recommendation letters, direct mentorship, and resume help for well-performing interns.
- Networking opportunities with leaders from across our community and our government.
- A space to build leadership abilities and a variety of technical and organizational skills
- Hybrid and remote work options.
