

We're looking for people who apply themselves.

Indiana University Health is Indiana's most comprehensive health system. With 16 hospitals, more than 300 primary care and specialty care offices and a growing network of urgent care centers and other clinical support services, IU Health provides access to a full range of services for adults and children. A unique partnership with Indiana University School of Medicine—one of the nation's leading medical schools—gives patients access to groundbreaking research and innovative treatments to complement high-quality care.

Collaborate with the brightest minds

IU Health Physicians is comprised of more than 2,800 professionals providing care for patients, including nearly 400 registered and licensed practical nurses. We collaborate and share best practices through our system of shared leadership. There are diverse nursing career opportunities for you to apply yourself on a highly skilled team in one of many practices across the state.

Leading-edge healthcare and research

Our nurses are redesigning nursing care delivery models, finding new ways to improve patient quality, experience and value. Our partnerships with the Indiana University School of Medicine and the Indiana University School of Nursing give us access to the very latest science and the very best training. Together, we continue to advance research through inclusive inquiry. Our advanced technology and teamwork means we can meet the unique needs of our patients. With a 26% reduction in harm events, we defined evidence-based care standards to keep patients safe from harm.

Unique personal and professional growth experiences

At IU Health, we're advancing the profession of nursing with over 100 nurses participating in system-shared leadership each month. Our team is flexible and adaptable, with access to many diverse opportunities to learn and grow in meaningful ways that matter to them. We've also designed and implemented innovative development initiatives such as the Professional Development & Pathways program for nurses and an approach to onboarding that considers the unique experience and skills each nurse brings to IU Health. Numerous professional development opportunities, such as Nursing Grand Rounds, support our nurses' spirit of inquiry.
