E. Projects: Update- Superintendent Weinstein reported the District received notification of DSA 100% approval of RES final school construction plans without any further modifications. This means when “Hardship Funds” are released by the State we absolutely ready to begin within 90-120 days. We trust Tropico Middle School construction notification will be received soon. The Westpark Field project is also nearing bidding.

Comments from the Public

Greg Wood reported on the upcoming Cancer Walk Run Ride Fundraiser event scheduled for Saturday September 8, 2014

Communications

Superintendent (CAO) Report: ●Mr. Weinstein reported the one on one laptop roll-out is 100% complete.

●Enrollment is up this year just over 100 students. ●The District met with Standard and Poor’s in San Francisco to improve our Bond Rating from a B+ and received a new rating of an A+ with a stable outlook for the future. This benefits the taxpayers because the better rating means a lower interest rate. Thank you Peter VanBuskirk, and Caldwell Flores. We appreciate S&P for their welcoming and genuine interest in our school district.

Board Member Communications:

Patrick Reader: Thanked everyone for coming good start of the year. Congratulations to Ana Ruiz for winning her tennis match. Thank you for supporting Boys Soccer by stopping at Foster Freeze after the meeting for a Taco.

J. Vincent Otis: Thanked Mr. VanBuskirk and Mr. Weinstein for their efforts with the presentation for S&P. Saturday, September 6th is opening day for AYSO Soccer at United Street Park. Everyone is welcome.

Mario Gutierrez: Thanked everyone for coming.

Scott Starkey: Good to hear about the district advancements so far this year. The A+ rating is good news for Rosamond.

Sandra Kirk: Thanked everyone for attending the meeting. She is happy to hear of the changes and complimented staff for a good job. Change to the one on one may be challenging but change is good. Congratulations' to RHS as a contender for the CSBA Bell Award.
