

Title II, Part A-Improving Teacher and Principal Quality

The purpose of these funds to the district is to increase student academic achievement through strategies such as improving teacher and principal quality and increasing the number of highly qualified teachers in the classroom and highly qualified principals and assistant principals in schools. This is accomplished through a variety of professional learning opportunities.