

Iroquois High School

Daily Bulletin – October 4, 2024

Today is a “E” Day

- The Girls Tennis battled for first place yesterday. The Red Hawks went into the match with a record of 8 and zero while Springville had a record of 9 and 1. The Red Hawks came out on top and extended their undefeated streak to 10 wins and zero losses by beating Springville in a double header. Congrats to all members of the team, especially Grace and Miranda who faced their most challenging opponents all season.
- The Boys Varsity Volleyball team extended their win streak to 3 matches last night beating Pavilion in straight sets. Strong serving by Matteo, Vincenzo, Ethan, and Vincent was the difference in the match. Matteo and Vincent also connected for several solid kills, Grayson and Andrew played well at the net and Shawn held the backline. The Red Hawks look to continue their winning ways tonight at Maryvale with a 5:00 start time.
- The HS Bookstore hours will now be: Monday 8-2:30, Wed 8-2:30, Fri 8-2pm.
- There are multiple volunteer opportunities available to earn community service hours; please be sure that you are checking Teams messages and the TV screen announcements around the school for updated volunteer events. There is also a bulletin board in the Student Support Services office that lists all current availabilities – stop by and check it out!
- Let them Eat Cake! Sweetest Day is coming to Iroquois this month. LEAD is helping you celebrate with Nothing Bundt Cake! Order your bundlet today for only $7 and show someone you care. Cakes are made locally and they come in 10 fantastic flavors. You have until October 7 to get in your paid order. Bundlets are delivered on October 16. You can place your order in room 215.
- Students who plan to take the PSAT exam administered at Iroquois should note the new exam date! The PSAT has been moved to Saturday, October 26th. Students should register in the high school bookstore by the end of the day on September 26th. The exam fee is $25 payable cash or check made out to Iroquois Central. If you have any questions, please stop in to the Student Support Services office.
- Students who plan to take the SAT exam administered at Iroquois on November 2nd should note the extended registration date! Students may register for the SAT exam until October 18th. After this date, there may be a late fee added. All registration is done online at sat.org/register. Senior and Junior students have been sent this update and link via Teams.
